SYMPOSIUM

History and Disability

University of Massachusetts, Amherst
601 Herter Hall
Saturday, October 13, 2012
10:00 AM - 3:00 PM

“History and Disability” will feature speakers from across the U.S. studying the cultural history of people with disabilities from the 1830s to the present.

Featured Speakers

- Professor Douglas Baynton, University of Iowa. A leading scholar on the history of disability, among his many publications is "Defectives in the Land: Disability and American Immigration Policy, 1882-1924."

- Professor Sarah F. Rose, University of Texas-Arlington. Author of No Right to Be Idle: The Invention of Disability, 1850-1930.

To make arrangements for disability services, please contact public@history.umass.edu

Sponsors

- Five Colleges Lecture Fund
- Five Colleges Disability Studies Digital Learning Community